

The Thomas Brassey Society

in association with

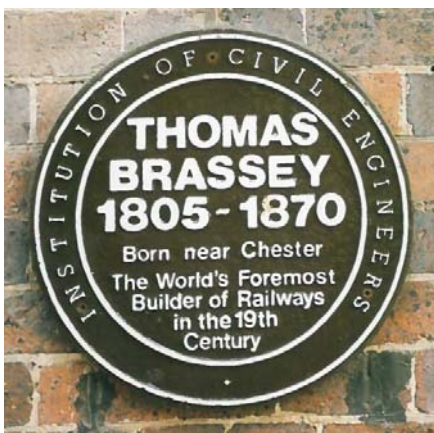

The Chester Civic Trust

PROPOSAL FOR A STATUE IN HONOUR OF

THOMAS BRASSEY

There's a statue of George Stephenson at Chesterfield Railway Station, one of Brunel at Paddington and a new one, soon, of Sir Nigel Gresley at Kings Cross.

Here in Chester (Brassey's birthplace) we already have a wall plaque at our railway station, but wouldn't it be marvellous to have a bronze statue in honour of Brassey.

If you would like to support this idea please join our campaign by contacting.

Stephen Langtree steve.langtree@yahoo.co.uk]

or

Roger Croston rogerc@croston-engineering.co.uk]